NOTICE OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION

If you purchased or otherwise acquired Celera Corporation (“Celera” or the “Company”)¹ common stock during the period from April 24, 2008 to July 22, 2009 (the “Class Period”) and are not otherwise excluded from the Class (see Question 6 below), you could get a payment from a class action settlement.

A federal court authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

Security and Time Period: Celera common stock purchased or otherwise acquired between April 24, 2008 and July 22, 2009.

Settlement Fund: $24,750,000 in cash plus any interest earned. Your recovery will depend on the timing of your purchases, acquisitions and sales of Celera common stock during the Class Period. Based on the information currently available to Lead Plaintiff and the analysis performed by its damages consultants, it is estimated that if Class Members submit claims for 100% of the shares eligible for distribution under the Plan of Allocation (described below), the estimated average distribution per share of common stock will be approximately $0.45 before deduction of Court-approved fees and expenses, including the cost of notifying Members of the Class and settlement administration and any attorneys’ fees and expenses awarded by the Court to counsel for the Lead Plaintiff. Historically, actual claims rates are less than 100%, which result in higher distributions per share. A Class Member’s actual recovery will be a proportion of the Net Settlement Fund determined by that claimant’s recognized claim as compared to the total recognized claims of all Class Members who submit valid Proof of Claim and Release forms (“Proof of Claim”).

Reasons for Settlement: Avoids the costs and risks associated with continued litigation, including the danger of no recovery.

If the Case Had Not Settled: Continuing with the case could have resulted in loss at summary judgment, trial or on appeal. The two sides vigorously disagree on both liability and the amount of money that could have been won if Lead Plaintiff prevailed at trial. The parties disagree about: (1) the method for determining whether the price of Celera common stock was artificially inflated during the relevant period; (2) whether there was any such inflation and the amount of any such alleged inflation; (3) that there was any wrongdoing on the part of Defendants; (4) the extent that various facts alleged by Lead Plaintiff influenced the trading price of Celera common stock during the Class Period; and (5) whether the facts alleged were material, false, misleading or otherwise actionable under the federal securities laws.

Attorneys’ Fees and Expenses: Court-appointed Lead Counsel will ask the Court for attorneys’ fees of up to 25% of the Settlement Fund and expenses not to exceed $350,000 to be paid from the Settlement Fund plus interest. Lead Counsel have not received any payment for their work investigating the facts, prosecuting this Litigation, and negotiating this settlement on behalf of the Lead Plaintiff and the Class. If the above amounts are requested and approved by the Court, the average cost per share of common stock will be approximately $0.12.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

SUBMIT A CLAIM FORM	The only way to get a payment. Claim forms must be mailed or submitted online on or before June 28, 2015.
EXCLUDE YOURSELF	Get no payment. This is the only option that allows you to participate in another lawsuit against the Defendants for the legal claims in this case. Exclusions must be postmarked on or before May 14, 2015.
OBJECT	You may write to the Court if you do not like this settlement, the request for attorneys' fees and expenses, or the Plan of Allocation. Objections must be filed by May 14, 2015.
GO TO THE SETTLEMENT HEARING	You may ask to speak in Court about the fairness of the settlement. Requests to speak must be filed with the Court on or before May 14, 2015. The Court hearing on the settlement, Plan of Allocation and Lead Counsel's request for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses is on July 16, 2015 at 9:00 a.m.
DO NOTHING	Get no payment. Give up your rights.

- These rights and options — and the deadlines to exercise them — are explained in this Notice.
- The Court in charge of this case must decide whether to approve the settlement. Payments will be made if the Court approves the settlement and, if there are any appeals, after appeals are resolved. Please be patient.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why did I get this notice package?

You or someone in your family may have purchased or acquired Celera common stock between April 24, 2008 and July 22, 2009.

The Court directed that you be sent this Notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement of a class action lawsuit, and about all of your options, before the Court decides whether to approve the settlement. If the Court approves it and after any objections or appeals (if there are any) are resolved, the Claims Administrator appointed by the Court will make the payments that the settlement allows.

This package explains the lawsuit, the settlement, your legal rights, what benefits are available, who is eligible for them, and how to get them.

The Court in charge of the case is the United States District Court, Northern District of California, San Jose Division, and the case is known as In re Celera Corp. Sec. Litig., No. 5:10-cv-02604-EJD(HRL). The entity that leads the Litigation, Washtenaw County Employees' Retirement System, is called the Lead Plaintiff and the companies and the individuals it sued are called Defendants.²

2. What is this lawsuit about?

This Litigation alleges that Celera and certain of its executives violated the federal securities laws by making materially false and misleading statements in (i) reporting Celera's revenue and earnings; (ii) certifying that the Company had adequate internal controls over financial reporting; (iii) representing that Celera's lab services division, Berkeley HeartLab, Inc.'s ("BHL"), revenue source principally consisted of Medicare and other insurance carriers; and (iv) issuing revenue and earnings guidance for 2009 that lacked a reasonable basis. The Litigation further alleges that the Celera Defendants knew that Celera's accounts receivable (i.e., the payments due for laboratory services it provided but had not yet collected from customers) were impaired as a result of Blue Cross/Blue Shield's decision to stop paying Celera directly for its lab services. Lead Plaintiff also alleged that PwC violated Generally Accepted Accounting Standards by issuing clean audit reports for Celera during the Class Period despite its knowledge that Celera's receivables were impaired because the Company was no longer being paid directly by Blue Cross/Blue Shield. Lead Plaintiff alleges that when Defendants disclosed the truth about the Company's financial results, Class Members suffered damages as a result of the decline in the price of Celera common stock.

Defendants deny all of Lead Plaintiff's allegations and further deny that they did anything wrong. Defendants also deny that Lead Plaintiff or the Class suffered damages or that the price of Celera common stock was artificially inflated by reasons of alleged misrepresentations, non-disclosures or otherwise.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called class representatives (in this case, the Court-appointed the Washtenaw County Employees' Retirement System as Lead Plaintiff and later as a class representative), sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of these people and/or entities are called a class or class members. One judge — in this case, United States District Court Judge Edward J. Davila — resolves the issues for all class members, except for those who exclude themselves from the class.

² The Defendants in this Litigation are Celera, Kathy Ordoñez, Joel R. Jung, Ugo DeBlasi, Christopher Hall (collectively, the "Celera Defendants"), and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PwC"). PwC was Celera's auditor during the relevant time period.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court did not decide in favor of the Lead Plaintiff or Defendants. Instead, the lawyers for both sides of the lawsuit have negotiated a settlement, with the assistance of a former United States District Judge, that they believe is in the best interests of their respective clients. The settlement allows both sides to avoid the risks and cost of lengthy and uncertain litigation and the uncertainty of a trial and appeals, and permits Class Members to be compensated without further delay. The Lead Plaintiff and its attorneys think the settlement is best for all Class Members.

WHO GETS MONEY FROM THE SETTLEMENT

To see if you will get money from this settlement, you first have to determine if you are a Class Member.

5. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

The Class includes *all persons or entities who purchased or otherwise acquired Celera common stock between April 24, 2008 and July 22, 2009.*³

6. Are there exceptions to being included in the Class?

Yes. Excluded from the Class are Defendants and their family members, the officers and directors of the Company, at all relevant times, members of the immediate families and their legal representatives, heirs, successors or assigns and any entity in which Defendants have or had a controlling interest. Also excluded from the Class are those Persons who timely and validly request exclusion from the Class.

7. I'm still not sure if I am included.

If you still are not sure whether you are included, you can ask for free help. You can call 1-877-430-4824 or visit www.celerasecuritiessettlement.com for more information; or, you can call Rick Nelson at 1-800-449-4900 for more information.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS – WHAT YOU GET

8. What does the settlement provide?

The Celera Defendants have agreed to pay or cause to be paid $23,000,000 in cash and PwC has agreed to pay or cause to be paid $1,750,000 in cash for a total of $24,750,000 (the "Settlement Fund"). The Settlement Fund, plus interest earned from the date it is established, less costs, fees, and expenses (the "Net Settlement Fund"), will be divided among all eligible Class Members who send in valid Proofs of Claim ("Authorized Claimants"). Costs, fees, and expenses include Court-approved attorneys' fees and expenses, the costs of notifying Class Members, including the costs of printing and mailing this Notice and the cost of publishing newspaper notice, the costs of claims administration, and taxes on the Settlement Fund.

9. How much will my payment be?

Your share of the Net Settlement Fund will depend on the number of valid Proofs of Claim that Class Members send in and how many shares of Celera common stock you purchased or otherwise acquired during the relevant period and when you bought and sold them.

For purposes of determining the amount an Authorized Claimant may recover under the Plan of Allocation, Lead Plaintiff's counsel conferred with their damages consultants and the Plan of Allocation reflects an assessment of damages that they believe could have been recovered had Lead Plaintiff prevailed at trial.

Each Authorized Claimant will receive an amount equal to the Authorized Claimant's claim, as defined below, if there are sufficient funds in the Net Settlement Fund. If, however, the amount in the Net Settlement Fund is not sufficient to permit payment of the total claim of each Authorized Claimant, then each Authorized Claimant shall be paid the percentage of the Net Settlement Fund that each Authorized Claimant's claim bears to the total of the claims of all Authorized Claimants. Payment in this manner shall be deemed conclusive against all Authorized Claimants.

The calculation of claims below is not an estimate of the amount you will receive. It is a formula for allocating the Net Settlement Fund among all Authorized Claimants.

The allocation below is based on the following market adjusted price declines as well as the statutory PSLRA 90-day look-back amount of $6.28:

February 18, 2009 Price Decline: $2.41

July 23, 2009 Price Decline: $2.25

A claim will be calculated as follows:

³ This includes purchasers of Celera Group common stock, a tracking stock of Applera Corporation, which traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) under the ticker CRA, and purchasers of Celera common stock after it split-off from Applera Corporation on July 1, 2008 to become an independent public company traded on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automatic Quotation System (NASDAQ) under the ticker CRA.

- A. For shares of Celera common stock purchased, or acquired, on or between April 24, 2008 through February 17, 2009, the claim per share shall be as follows:
- (a) If sold prior to February 18, 2009, the claim per share is zero.
- (b) If sold on, or between, February 18, 2009 through July 22, 2009, the claim per share shall be the lesser of (i) $2.41 (February 18, 2009 Price Decline), or (ii) the difference between the purchase price and the selling price.
- (c) If retained at the end of July 22, 2009 and sold before October 20, 2009, the claim per share shall be the lesser of (i) $4.66 (February 18, 2009 and July 23, 2009 Price Declines), or (ii) the difference between the purchase price and the selling price, or (iii) the difference between the purchase price per share and the average closing price per share up to the date of sale as set forth in the table below.
- (d) If retained, or sold, on or after October 20, 2009, the claim per share shall be the lesser of (i) $4.66 (February 18, 2009 and July 23, 2009 Price Declines), or (ii) the difference between the purchase price per share and $6.28 per share.
- B. For shares of Celera common stock purchased, or acquired, on or between February 18, 2009 through July 22, 2009, the claim per share shall be as follows:
- (a) If sold prior to July 23, 2009, the claim per share is zero.
- (b) If retained at the end of July 22, 2009 and sold before October 20, 2009, the claim per share shall be the lesser of (i) $2.25 (July 23, 2009 Price Decline), or (ii) the difference between the purchase price and the selling price, or (iii) the difference between the purchase price per share and the average closing price per share up to the date of sale as set forth in the table below.
- (c) If retained, or sold, on or after October 20, 2009, the claim per share shall be the lesser of (i) $2.25 (July 23, 2009 Price Decline), or (ii) the difference between the purchase price per share and $6.28 per share.

For Class Members who held Celera common stock at the beginning of the Class Period or made multiple purchases, acquisitions, or sales during the Class Period, the first-in, first-out (“FIFO”) method will be applied to such holdings, purchases, acquisitions and sales for purposes of calculating a claim. Under the FIFO method, sales of Celera common stock during the Class Period will be matched in chronological order, first against common stock held at the beginning of the Class Period. The remaining sales of Celera common stock during the Class Period will then be matched, in chronological order, against like Celera common stock purchased during the Class Period.

An Authorized Claimant will be eligible to receive a distribution from the Net Settlement Fund only if a Class Member had a net loss, after all profits from transactions in Celera common stock during the Class Period are subtracted from all losses. However, the proceeds from sales of Celera common stock which have been matched against Celera common stock held at the beginning of the Class Period will not be used in the calculation of such net loss.

The Court has reserved jurisdiction to allow, disallow or adjust the claim of any Class Member on equitable grounds.

Payment pursuant to the Plan of Allocation set forth above shall be conclusive against all Authorized Claimants. No Person shall have any claim against Lead Plaintiff, any counsel for Lead Plaintiff, any claims administrator or other Person designated by Lead Plaintiff's counsel or Defendants and/or the Related Parties and/or the Released Persons and/or their counsel based on distributions made substantially in accordance with the Stipulation and the settlement contained therein, the Plan of Allocation, or further orders of the Court. All Class Members who fail to complete and file a valid and timely Proof of Claim shall be barred from participating in distributions from the Net Settlement Fund (unless otherwise ordered by the Court), but otherwise shall be bound by all of the terms of the Stipulation, including the terms of any judgment entered and the releases given.

HOW YOU GET A PAYMENT – SUBMITTING A CLAIM FORM

10. How will I get a payment?

To qualify for a payment, you must send in a Proof of Claim. A Proof of Claim is enclosed with this Notice or it can be downloaded at www.celerasecuritiessettlement.com. Read the instructions carefully, fill out the form, include all the documents the form asks for, sign it, and mail it in the enclosed envelope or submit it online no later than June 28, 2015. The claim form may be submitted online at www.celerasecuritiessettlement.com.

11. When would I get my payment?

The Court will hold a hearing on July 16, 2015 at 9:00 a.m., to decide whether to approve the settlement.⁴ If Judge Davila approves the settlement, there may be appeals. It is always uncertain whether these appeals can be resolved favorably, and resolving them can take time, perhaps more than a year. It also takes time for all the claim forms to be processed. If there are no appeals and depending on the number of claims submitted, the Claims Administrator could distribute the Net Settlement Fund as early as nine months after the fairness hearing. Please be patient.

12. What am I giving up to get a payment or stay in the Class?

Unless you exclude yourself, you are staying in the Class, and that means that you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendants about the same issues in this case or about issues that could have been asserted in this case. It also means that all of the Court's orders will apply to you and legally bind you and you will release your Released Claims in this case against Defendants and their Related Parties. "Released Claims" means any and all claims, against Defendants and their Related Parties, based upon or arising out of both (a) the facts, transactions, events, occurrences, disclosures, statements, acts, omissions or failures to act which were or could have been alleged in the Litigation, and (b) the purchase or acquisition of Celera common stock by any Class Member during the Class Period. For avoidance of doubt, Released Claims do not include any derivative claims or ERISA claims, or claims to enforce the settlement.

"Related Parties" means each of a Defendant's past or present directors, officers, employees, partners, insurers, co-insurers, reinsurers, controlling shareholders, attorneys, accountants or auditors, personal or legal representatives, predecessors, successors, direct or indirect parents, direct or indirect subsidiaries, divisions, joint ventures, agents, assigns, spouses, heirs, executors, estates, administrators, related or affiliated entities, any entity in which a Defendant has a controlling interest, any members of any Individual Defendant's immediate family, or any trust of which any Individual Defendant is the settlor or which is for the benefit of any Individual Defendant or his or her family.

⁴ The date and/or time of the Court hearing on the fairness of the settlement may change without further notice to the Class. If you plan on attending the Court hearing, please check the website, www.celerasecuritiessettlement.com or call Rick Nelson, Shareholder Relations representative of Lead Counsel at 1-800-449-4900 to confirm the date and/or time has not changed.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you do not want a payment from this settlement, but you want to keep the right to sue or continue to sue the Defendants on your own about the same issues in this case, then you must take steps to get out of the Class. This is called excluding yourself or is sometimes referred to as opting out of the Class.

13. How do I get out of the Class?

To exclude yourself from the Class, you must send a letter by mail stating that you want to be excluded from In re Celera Corp. Sec. Litig., No. 5:10-cv-02604-EJD(HRL). You must include your name, address, telephone number and your signature. You must mail your exclusion request postmarked no later than May 14, 2015 to:

Celera Securities Litigation
Claims Administrator
c/o Gilardi & Co. LLC
P.O. Box 8040
San Rafael, CA 94912-8040

You cannot exclude yourself on the phone or by e-mail. If you ask to be excluded, you are not eligible to get any settlement payment, and you cannot object to the settlement. You will not be legally bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit.

14. If I do not exclude myself, can I sue Defendants for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue Defendants for the claims that this settlement resolves. Remember, the exclusion deadline is May 14, 2015.

15. If I exclude myself, can I get money from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, do not send in a Proof of Claim to ask for any money. Once you exclude yourself, you will receive no cash payment even if you also submit a Proof of Claim.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

16. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court appointed the law firm of Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP to represent you and other Class Members. These lawyers are called Lead Counsel. These lawyers will apply to the Court for payment from the Settlement Fund; you will not otherwise be charged for their work. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

17. How will the lawyers be paid?

At the fairness hearing, Lead Counsel will request the Court to award attorneys' fees of up to 25% of the Settlement Fund and expenses up to $350,000, in connection with the Litigation. If awarded, the cost would be approximately $0.12 per share. This compensation will be paid from the Settlement Fund. Class Members are not personally liable for any such fees or expenses. To date, Lead Counsel have not received any payment for their services in conducting this Litigation on behalf of the Lead Plaintiff and the Class, nor have counsel been paid for their expenses. The fee requested will compensate Lead Counsel for their work in achieving the Settlement Fund and is well within the range of fees awarded to class counsel under similar circumstances in other cases of this type. The Court may award less than this amount.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

You can tell the Court that you do not agree with the settlement, the Plan of Allocation, or Lead Counsel's request for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

18. How do I tell the Court that I do not like the settlement?

If you are a Class Member (and you have not excluded yourself), you can object to the settlement, the request for attorneys' fees and expenses, or the Plan of Allocation if you do not like any part of it. The Court can only approve or deny the settlement. You cannot ask the Court to order a larger settlement. If the Court denies the settlement, no settlement payments will be sent out and the lawsuit will continue. You can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve the settlement, the request for attorneys' fees and expenses, or the Plan of Allocation. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must file an objection saying that you object to the proposed settlement in In re Celera Corp. Sec. Litig., No. 5:10-cv-02604-EJD(HRL). Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, your signature, the number of shares of Celera common stock purchased or acquired between April 24, 2008 and July 22, 2009, and the reasons you object to the settlement, the requested attorneys' fees and expenses, and/or the Plan of Allocation. Any such objection must be submitted to the Court below by filing or mailing them to the Class Action Clerk at the address below or by filing them in person at any location of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California on or before May 14, 2015.

United States District Court
Class Action Clerk
Northern District of California
San Jose Division
280 South 1st Street
San Jose, CA 95113

19. What is the difference between objecting and excluding myself from the settlement?

Objecting is telling the Court that you do not like something about the proposed settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Class. Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer applies to you.

THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the proposed settlement. You may attend, but you do not have to.

20. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a hearing at 9:00 a.m., on July 16, 2015, at the United States District Court, Northern District of California, San Jose Division, Robert F. Peckham Federal Building, 280 South 1st Street, San Jose, CA 95113. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court will listen to people who have asked to speak at the hearing. The Court will also decide whether to approve the payment of attorneys' fees and expenses to Lead Counsel, and whether to approve the Plan of Allocation. We do not know how long the hearing will take or whether the Court will make its decision on the day of the hearing or sometime later.

21. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Lead Counsel will answer questions Judge Davila may have. But, you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection, you do not have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, but you are not required to do so.

22. May I speak at the hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the hearing. To do so, you must send a letter saying that it is your intention to appear in In re Celera Corp. Sec. Litig., No. 5:10-cv-02604-EJD(HRL). Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, your signature, and the number of shares of Celera common stock you purchased or acquired between April 24, 2008 and July 22, 2009. Your notice of intention to appear must be filed with the Class Action Clerk, at the address listed in Question 18 or filed at any location of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California on or before May 14, 2015. You cannot speak at the hearing if you exclude yourself from the Class.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

23. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing, you will get no money from this settlement. But, unless you exclude yourself, you will not be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendants about the same issues in this case.

GETTING MORE INFORMATION

24. Are there more details about the settlement?

25. Special notice to banks, brokers, and other nominees

If you hold any Celera common stock purchased or acquired between April 24, 2008 and July 22, 2009, as a nominee for a beneficial owner, then, within ten (10) days after you receive this Notice, you must either: (1) send a copy of this Notice by First-Class Mail to all such Persons; or (2) provide a list of the names and addresses of such Persons to the Claims Administrator:

Celera Securities Litigation
Claims Administrator
c/o Gilardi & Co. LLC
P.O. Box 8040
San Rafael, CA 94912-8040

If you choose to mail the Notice and Proof of Claim yourself, you may obtain from the Claims Administrator (without cost to you) as many additional copies of these documents as you will need to complete the mailing.

Regardless of whether you choose to complete the mailing yourself or elect to have the mailing performed for you, you may obtain reimbursement for or advancement of reasonable administrative costs actually incurred or expected to be incurred in connection with forwarding the Notice and which would not have been incurred but for the obligation to forward the Notice, upon submission of appropriate documentation to the Claims Administrator.
