Justin Chaney is Manager, Client Services at Kessler Topaz Meltzer & Check, LLP (“Kessler Topaz”) within the Firm’s Business Development Department. In this role, he oversees client service operations supporting U.S. and global institutional investors, including Taft-Hartley, municipal, and public pension funds. Mr. Chaney manages the Firm’s Client Services team, which supports institutional clients through the Firm’s securities litigation and portfolio monitoring services and advances operational initiatives to strengthen the Firm’s client service infrastructure.

Mr. Chaney works with institutional investors, custodial banks, and investment professionals to facilitate client onboarding, address operational matters, and support the Firm’s global settlement recovery and monitoring efforts. He also collaborates with internal teams across claims, data analytics, settlements, and reporting to help ensure efficient service delivery and reliable operational support for the Firm’s clients. Through this work, Mr. Chaney helps ensure that institutional investors receive consistent operational support as they pursue recovery through the Firm’s securities litigation and recovery efforts.

Prior to joining Kessler Topaz in 2019, Mr. Chaney spent nearly two decades supporting complex litigation matters, gaining extensive experience in legal operations, client relations, and project coordination.
