The Aquestive Therapeutics, Inc. class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired Aquestive Therapeutics, Inc. ("Aquestive") (NASDAQ: AQST) securities between June 16, 2025 and January 8, 2026, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Captioned Modica v. Aquestive Therapeutics, Inc., No. 26-cv-02317 (D.N.J.), the Aquestive class action lawsuit alleges that Aquestive and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your Aquestive investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Najji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than May 4, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

Aquestive is a pharmaceutical company focused on treatments for anaphylaxis and epilepsy. One of Aquestive's lead product candidates is Anaphylm, an allergic reaction treatment.

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) the FDA identified deficiencies in Aquestive's New Drug Application ("NDA") for Anaphylm; (2) any such deficiencies were required to be remedied prior to approval by the Prescription Drug User Fee Act ("PDUFA"), meaning Aquestive would fail to meet the PDUFA date; and (3) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID AQUESTIVE'S STOCK DROP?

On June 16, 2025, Aquestive announced that the FDA had accepted the NDA and PDUFA date of January 31, 2026, for Anaphylm. However, as the PDUFA date approached, Aquestive announced on January 9, 2026 that the FDA had identified deficiencies in the NDA that precluded labeling for Anaphylm. On this news, Aquestive's stock price declined over 37% in a single day.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Aquestive securities during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Aquestive class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
