The Camping World Holdings, Inc. class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired Camping World Holdings, Inc. ("Camping World") (NYSE: CWH) securities between April 29, 2025 and February 24, 2026, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Captioned Siverd v. Camping World Holdings, Inc., No. 26-cv-02710 (N.D. Ill.), the Camping World class action lawsuit alleges that Camping World and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your Camping World investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than May 11, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

Camping World is a retailer of recreational vehicles and related products and services.

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) Camping World overstated its ability to precisely manage its inventory; (2) the company reasonably expected and/or was experiencing decreased consumer retail demand that would require "strict, corrective inventory management objectives," to mitigate the negative impacts on gross profit and margins; (3) Camping World lacked the adequate systems and processes to ensure reasonably accurate disclosures and/or guidance; and (4) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID CAMPING WORLD'S STOCK DROP?

Camping World Holdings, Inc. Class Action Lawsuit - CWH

On October 28, 2025, Camping World announced that its new vehicle revenue decreased 7%, the average selling price of new vehicles sold decreased 8.6%, and its new vehicle gross margin decreased 81 basis points. Despite this, Camping World tried to reassure investors that it had "set the stage for our return to measured and accretive M&A activity across the business." Still, on the heels of this announcement, Camping World's stock fell 24.8%.

On February 24, 2026, Camping World reported a net loss of $109.1 million for the fourth quarter of 2025, which was an increased loss of 83.3%. Camping World also saw a gross profit decrease of 10.3%, a total gross margin decrease of 291 basis points, and an overall shortfall of the company's prior guidance. In addition to the disappointing financial results, Camping World announced that it was pausing its quarterly cash dividend, effective immediately. On this news, Camping World's stock price fell 16.5%.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Camping World securities during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Camping World class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
