The Globant S.A. class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired Globant S.A. ("Globant") (NYSE: GLOB) common stock between February 15, 2024 and August 14, 2025, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Captioned Ohio Carpenters' Pension Fund v. Globant S.A., No. 26-cv-03405 (S.D.N.Y.), the Globant class action lawsuit alleges that Globant and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your Globant investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than June 23, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

Globant is a Luxembourg-incorporated technology company that provides digital consulting and related services. Globant was founded in Argentina, and its workforce is largely based in Latin America. Before 2023, Globant focused on providing services to clients in the United States, but in mid-2023, Globant announced a $1 billion strategic pivot designed to grow its business in Latin American.

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) Globant was facing declining demand for its services in Latin America, including client defections and project cancellations; (2) Globant froze wages for employees in Mexico and Argentina, which caused widespread turmoil that impacted operations and client services; and (3) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID GLOBANT'S STOCK DROP?

On August 14, 2025, Globant announced disappointing results for Q2 of 2025, as well as a reduction in headcount by 2% and a $47.6 million restructuring charge. On this news, Globant's stock price fell nearly 15%.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Globant common stock during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Globant class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
