Captioned Dishion v. Power Solutions International, Inc., No. 26-cv-03149 (N.D. COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) Power Solutions was unable to capture sales demand for its power system solutions to the extent it purported, especially within the data center market; (2) the impact of the company's enhancements to its manufacturing capacity, including the expected costs, was far greater than stated; and (3) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID POWER SOLUTIONS'S STOCK DROP?

On November 6, 2025, Power Solutions revealed that its "gross margin in the third quarter of 2025 was 23.9%, a decrease of 5.0%" year over year. The company stated that this was due to temporary inefficiencies in some of its production ramp-ups. On this news, Power Solutions' stock price fell more than 19%.

Then, after the market closed on March 2, 2026, Power Solutions announced disappointing financial results, again due to “operating inefficiencies related to [Power Solutions] accelerated production ramp-up” for some product lines. Investors quickly reacted to this news, and Power Solutions’ stock price fell almost 29%.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Power Solutions securities during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Power Solutions class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member’s claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
