The Via Transportation, Inc. class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired Via Transportation, Inc. ("Via") (NYSE: VIA) common stock pursuant and/or traceable to the registration statement and related prospectus, including amendments thereto (collectively, the "Offering Documents"), issued in connection with the initial public offering ("IPO") conducted on or about September 15, 2025. Captioned Stephan Garlesky v. Via Transportation, Inc., No. 26-cv-04870 (S.D.N.Y.), the Via class action lawsuit alleges that Via and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your Via investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than August 10, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

The complaint alleges that, in the Offering Documents, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) the Platform Annual Run-Rate Revenue ("ARR") per customer was declining; (2) existing regulatory issues would likely hinder the company's expansion strategy; and (3) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID VIA'S STOCK DROP?

On May 12, 2026, Via held an earnings call in which it admitted that the company was facing continued headwinds due to German customers experiencing "a sustained constrained budgetary environment." On this news, Via's stock price dropped to close at $14.12 per share, which was a nearly 70% decline from its IPO offering price.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Via common stock during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Via class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
