not apply to you. If you are uncertain whether you are a member of the Class, please contact Class Counsel listed in ¶ 24 below, or your own attorney.

3. This Notice is not an admission by Defendants or an expression of any opinion by the Court as to the merits of the Action, or a finding by the Court that the claims asserted by Class Representative¹ in the Action are valid. This Notice is intended solely to inform you of the pendency of the Action and of your rights concerning the Action, including the right to request exclusion from the Class if you are a member of the Class. There is no judgment, settlement, or monetary recovery at this time, and there is no assurance that a judgment in favor of the Class will be granted or that the Court will award the Class a monetary recovery. Defendants have denied Class Representative’s claims, and contend that they are not liable for the harm alleged by Class Representative.

4. The Class definition may be subject to change by the Court pursuant to Rule 23.

DESCRIPTION AND STATUS OF THE LAWSUIT

5. This is a securities class action against Defendants for alleged violations of the federal securities laws during the Class Period. Class Representative alleges that Defendants made material misrepresentations and omissions during the Class Period regarding Celgene’s business, operations, and prospects. More specifically, Class Representative alleges that Defendants made misrepresentations and omissions regarding two drugs that Defendants touted as sources of revenue to fill the void that would be left by Celgene’s flagship drug, Revlimid, when its patent expired in 2022 – Ozanimod and Otezla. This Action alleges that Defendants made statements that misrepresented and failed to disclose material facts regarding Celgene’s development of the multiple sclerosis drug Ozanimod and that Celgene was on track to submit a “new drug application” regarding Ozanimod to the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (“FDA”) pursuant to the company’s timeline. This Action also alleges that Defendants failed to disclose the existence of substantial impediments to the expansion of the market for Otezla, a drug used to treat psoriasis and psoriatic arthritis. Defendants deny the allegations of wrongdoing asserted in the Action, and deny any liability whatsoever to any member of the Class. Please note that this Notice does not describe all claims and defenses asserted by the parties. The section entitled “Where You Can Find Additional Information” describes the process by which you can obtain additional information about this Action, including the claims and defenses asserted.

6. On March 29, 2018, the initial complaint was filed in the Court against Celgene and certain of Celgene’s officers, asserting violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. §§ 78j(b) and 78t(a) (“Exchange Act”), and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, 17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5.

7. On September 26, 2018, the Court appointed AMF Pensionsförsäkring AB as Lead Plaintiff pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (“PSLRA”) and appointed Lead Plaintiff’s selection of counsel – Kessler Topaz Meltzer & Check, LLP as lead counsel and Carella, Byrne, Cecchi, Olstein, Brody & Agnello, P.C. and Seeger Weiss, LLP as co-liaison counsel.

8. On December 10, 2018, Lead Plaintiff filed the Amended Consolidated Class Action Complaint (“Amended Complaint”) against Celgene, Mark J. Alles, Scott A. Smith, Peter N. Kellogg, Terrie Curran, Jacquelyn A. Fouse, Philippe Martin, Nadim Ahmed, Jonathan Q. Tran, Robert J. Hugin, and Peter Callegari, M.D. Like the initial complaint, the Amended Complaint asserted violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Exchange Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 78j(b) and 78t(a), and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, 17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5. Defendants moved to dismiss the Amended Complaint on February 8, 2019.

9. Pursuant to Stipulation and Order of the Court, Lead Plaintiff was permitted to amend the Amended Complaint to remove a single allegation. On February 27, 2019, Lead Plaintiff filed the Second Amended Consolidated Class Action Complaint (“Second Amended Complaint”).

10. On April 9, 2019, Lead Plaintiff opposed Defendants’ motion to dismiss and, on May 9, 2019, Defendants filed a reply in support of their motion to dismiss. By Order dated December 19, 2019, the Court granted in part and denied in part Defendants’ motion to dismiss (“MTD Ruling”). The MTD Ruling dismissed: (i) Lead Plaintiff’s allegations as to a drug referred to as GED-0301; (ii) a number of alleged misstatements concerning Otezla and Ozanimod; (iii) Lead Plaintiff’s Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5 claims against Mark J. Alles, Peter N. Kellogg, Nadim Ahmed, Peter Callegari, M.D., Jonathan Q. Tran, Jacquelyn A. Fouse, and Robert J. Hugin; and (iv) Lead Plaintiff’s Section 20(a) claims.

11. On March 5, 2020, Defendants filed their Answer to the Second Amended Complaint, denying all claims and wrongdoing asserted, as well as any liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Second Amended Complaint. The Defendants also asserted several affirmative defenses to the claims made in the Second Amended Complaint. Thereafter, the parties pursued discovery concerning their respective claims and defenses.

12. On May 1, 2020, Lead Plaintiff filed a motion for class certification. Defendants opposed Lead Plaintiff’s motion on June 25, 2020, and Lead Plaintiff filed a reply in further support of its motion on July 31, 2020. By Order and Opinion entered on November 30, 2020 (together, the “Class Certification Order”), the Court granted Lead Plaintiff’s motion, certifying a Class consisting of all persons and entities who purchased the common stock of Celgene between April 27, 2017 and April 27, 2018, and were damaged thereby. Excluded from the Class are: (i) Celgene; (ii) any directors and officers of Celgene during the Class Period and members of their immediate families; (iii) the subsidiaries, parents and affiliates of Celgene; (iv) any firm, trust, corporation or other entity in which Celgene has or had a controlling interest; and (v) the legal representatives, heirs, successors and assigns of any such excluded party. In addition, the Class Certification Order appointed Lead Plaintiff as Class Representative and appointed Kessler Topaz Meltzer & Check, LLP as Class Counsel and Carella, Byrne, Cecchi, Olstein, Brody & Agnello, P.C. and Seeger Weiss, LLP as Co-Liaison Counsel for the Class.

13. On December 14, 2020, Defendants filed a petition with the Third Circuit Court of Appeals for permission to appeal the Class Certification Order. The Third Circuit denied without prejudice Defendants’ petition on March 2, 2021.

14. On July 9, 2021, Class Representative filed a Motion for Leave to Amend the Second Amended Complaint. ECF No. 135. On February 24, 2022, Magistrate Judge James B. Clark, III granted the Motion for Leave to Amend the Second Amended Complaint. ECF No. 173. Class Representative then filed the Third Amended Consolidated Class Action Complaint on

15. The Action is ongoing. The parties completed fact discovery on June 20, 2021. A trial date has not yet been set.

16. No court has made a ruling on the merits of Class Representative's allegations or on Defendants' denials and defenses.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A CLASS MEMBER

17. A class action is a type of lawsuit in which one or several individuals or entities prosecute claims on behalf of all members of a group of similarly situated persons and entities to obtain monetary or other relief for the benefit of the entire group. Class actions avoid the necessity of each member of a class having to file his, her, or its own separate lawsuit to obtain relief. Class actions are used to decide legal and factual issues that are common to all members of a class.

18. If you purchased the common stock of Celgene between April 27, 2017 and April 27, 2018, and were damaged thereby, and you are not excluded by definition from the Class, then you are a member of the Class. If you are a member of the Class, you have the right to decide whether to remain a member of the Class. If you are a member of the Class and wish to be excluded from the Class, you must request exclusion in accordance with the procedures set forth in ¶ 20 below. If you want to remain a member of the Class, you do not need to do anything at this time other than to retain your documentation reflecting your transactions and holdings in Celgene common stock during the Class Period as discussed below in ¶ 19. Your decision is important for the following reasons:

- a. If you choose to remain a member of the Class, you will be bound by all past, present, and future orders and judgments in the Action, whether favorable or unfavorable. If any money is awarded to the Class, either through a settlement with Defendants or a judgment of the Court after a trial and appeal, you may be eligible to receive a share of that award. However, if you remain a member of the Class, you may not pursue a lawsuit on your own behalf with regard to any of the issues in the Action in connection with your purchase of Celgene common stock. Pursuant to Rule 23(e)(4), it is within the Court's discretion whether to allow a second opportunity to request exclusion from the Class if there is a settlement. Please note that if you remain a member of the Class, you will not be personally responsible for Class Counsel's attorneys' fees or costs. Class Counsel has agreed to represent the Class on a contingent fee basis, which means that it will be awarded fees and costs, as approved by the Court, only if it succeeds in obtaining a recovery from one or more Defendants. Any attorneys' fees and costs for Class Counsel will be awarded by the Court from the settlement or judgment, if any, obtained on behalf of the Class. As a member of the Class, you will be represented by Class Counsel. Alternatively, you may remain a member of the Class and elect to be represented by counsel of your own choosing. If you do retain separate counsel, you will be responsible for that attorney's fees and expenses and that attorney must enter an appearance on your behalf by filing a Notice of Appearance with the Court and mailing it to Class Counsel at the address set forth in ¶ 24 below on or before July 11, 2022.

- b. If you choose to be excluded from the Class, you will not be bound by any orders or judgments in this Action, nor will you be eligible to share in any recovery that might be obtained in this Action. You will retain any right you have to individually pursue any legal rights that you may have against any Defendants with respect to the claims asserted in the Action and Defendants retain all their defenses to your claims. Please note, if you decide to exclude yourself from the Class, you may be time-barred from asserting all or a portion of the claims covered by the Action. Class Counsel offers no advice and no opinion on whether you will be able to maintain such claims. Please refer to ¶¶ 20-23 below if you would like to request exclusion from the Class.

19. Members of the Class will be eligible to participate in any recovery that might be obtained in the Action. While this Notice is not intended to suggest any likelihood that Class Representative or members of the Class will obtain any recovery, should there be a recovery, members of the Class will be required to support their requests to participate in the distribution of the recovery by demonstrating their membership in the Class and documenting their purchases and sales of Celgene common stock during the Class Period. For this reason, please be sure to keep all records of your transactions and holdings in Celgene common stock. DO NOT mail them to Class Counsel or the Administrator at this time.
