The Embecta Corp. class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired Embecta Corp. ("Embecta") (NASDAQ: EMBC) common stock between November 25, 2025 and May 4, 2026, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Captioned Harrison Apitz-Grossman v. Embecta Corp., No. 26-cv-07217 (D.N.J.), the Embecta class action lawsuit alleges that Embecta and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your Embecta investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than August 17, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

Embecta is a medical device company focused on solution for people living with diabetes.

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) the company was experiencing segment weakness in the United States pen needle market; (2) this weakness was likely to disrupt Embecta's revenue guidance; and (3) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID EMBECTA'S STOCK DROP?

On May 5, 2026, Embecta revealed that it failed to meet its guidance for second quarter 2026, and lowered its fiscal year 2026 guidance. Specifically, the company disclosed that its results with respect to consolidated revenues were down "14.4% year-over-year on an as-reported basis or 17.4% on an adjusted constant currency basis." On this news, the price of Embecta's stock fell more than 57.8% in one day.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Embecta common stock during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Embecta class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
