The Megan Holdings Limited class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired Megan Holdings Limited ("Megan") (NASDAQ: MGN) securities (1) between September 26, 2025 and March 25, 2026, inclusive (the "Class Period"); and/or (2) pursuant and/or traceable to the registration statement and related prospectus (collectively, the "Offering Documents") issued in connection with the initial public offering ("IPO") on or around September 26, 2025. Captioned Wade Mundy v. Megan Holdings Limited, No. 26-cv-05754 (S.D.N.Y.), the Megan class action lawsuit alleges that Megan and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your Megan investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than September 8, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

The complaint alleges that, in the Offering Documents and throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) Megan was the subject of social media based market manipulation and fraudulent promotion schemes that were used to drive the company's stock price, putting the company at risk of sustained suspension in trading by NASDAQ; (2) the sole underwriter on the IPO had conducted numerous microcap IPOs that suffered volatility-induced declines due to the market manipulation schemes; (3) Megan suffered material weaknesses to its internal accountings and financial reporting controls; and (4) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID MEGAN'S STOCK DROP?

On March 25, 2026, Megan's daily trading volume surged due to a coordinated "dump" of shares afterhours, which led to the stock opening on March 26, 2026, at a 90% decline from the prior day.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Megan securities during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Megan class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
