The Photronics, Inc. class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired Photronics, Inc. ("Photronics") (NASDAQ: PLAB) securities between December 10, 2025 and May 27, 2026, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Captioned Vaughn Cooper v. Photronics, Inc., No. 26-cv-01069 (D. Conn.), the Photronics class action lawsuit alleges that Photronics and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your Photronics investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than September 4, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) the seasonal recovery and design release momentum following the Chinese New Year holiday had stalled; (2) the company was experiencing bottleneck in its design release pipeline that made growth expectations unreachable; and (3) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID PHOTRONICS' STOCK DROP?

On May 27, 2026, Photronics announced an 11% decline of its integrated circuit revenue. This drop, combined with the third-quarter guidance being below market consensus, was claimed to be due to the projected seasonal recovery following the Chinese New Year holiday failing to materialize. On this news, the price of Photronics' stock price fell more than 36%.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Photronics securities during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Photronics class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
