The XTI Aerospace, Inc. securities fraud class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired XTI Aerospace, Inc. ("XTI Aerospace") (NASDAQ: XTIA) securities between April 15, 2026 and August 17, 2026, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Captioned Noalan v. XTI Aerospace, Inc., No. 26-cv-07378 (S.D.N.Y.), the XTI Aerospace class action lawsuit alleges that XTI Aerospace and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your XTI Aerospace investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than October 27, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) senior executives had engaged in certain undisclosed activities that required Board review; (2) there was reason to doubt the effectiveness of the company's disclosure controls and procedures, causing it to be unable to timely file its earnings reports; and (3) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID XTI AEROSPACE'S STOCK DROP?

On August 17, 2026, XTI Aerospace disclosed that it could not timely file its earnings report because the company was "in the process of completing an internal review of the Registrant's former Chief Executive Officer, who resigned on August 17, 2026, and other related corporate governance matters." On this news, the price of XTI Aerospace's stock fell nearly 16%.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired XTI Aerospace securities during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the XTI Aerospace class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
