The Better Home & Finance Holding Company securities fraud class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired Better Home & Finance Holding Company ("Better Home") (NASDAQ: BETR) securities between March 13, 2026 and May 7, 2026, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Captioned Gastwirt v. Better Home & Finance Holding Company, No. 26-cv-08219 (S.D.N.Y.), the Better Home class action lawsuit alleges that Better Home and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your Better Home investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than November 20, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

Better Home provides government-sponsored enterprise conforming loans and associated loans to banks, insurance companies, asset managers, and mortgage real estate investment trusts.

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) the company's conversion funnel was already slowing due to macro factors; (2) Better Home's $1 billion monthly funded volume target was likely to be deferred; and (3) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID BETTER HOME'S STOCK DROP?

On May 7, 2026, Better Home released its first quarter 2026 financial results, revealing that it fell short of its previously issued guidance. On this news, Better Home's stock price fell nearly 29%.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Better Home securities during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Better Home class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
