The Lincoln Educational Services Corporation securities fraud class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired Lincoln Educational Services Corporation ("Lincoln") (NASDAQ: LINC) securities between May 11, 2026 and August 9, 2026, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Captioned Bacha v. Lincoln Educational Services Corporation, No. 26-cv-11842 (D.N.J.), the Lincoln class action lawsuit alleges that Lincoln and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your Lincoln investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than November 10, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

Lincoln provides various career-oriented postsecondary education services to high school graduates and working adults in the United States.

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) the company's admissions process was not effectively converting students from enrollment to starting classes, causing the company to experience a significant drop in student starts relative to enrollment; and (2) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

Lincoln Educational Services Corporation Class Action Lawsuit - LINC

WHY DID LINCOLN'S STOCK DROP?

On August 10, 2026, Lincoln reported that student starts increased by only 1% year-over-year, despite enrollment increasing by 9%. On this news, the price of Lincoln stock fell nearly 25%.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Lincoln securities during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Lincoln class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
