The Everest Group, Ltd. securities fraud class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired Everest Group, Ltd. ("Everest") (NYSE: EG) common stock between February 8, 2024 and October 27, 2025, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Captioned City of Detroit General Retirement System and City of Plantation Police Officers' Retirement System v. Everest Group, Ltd., No. 26-cv-09448 (S.D.N.Y.), the Everest class action lawsuit alleges that Everest and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your Everest investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than December 28, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) Everest remained materially exposed to and concentrated in casualty risks subject to escalating claim costs, including business Defendants claimed Everest had reduced or exited; (2) Everest had inadequately priced portions of that business; (3) Everest understated its liabilities and expenses and materially overstate its earnings; (4) to address these issues, the company would be required to endure substantial reserve charges, protection against further adverse development, and reductions in E*verest's* casualty business, in turn sacrificing recurring premium revenue; and (5) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID EVEREST'S STOCK DROP?
Less than three months after Everest assured investors that its casualty reserves were adequate, the company disclosed, among other things, that it had recorded $478 million in net unfavorable prior year reserve development driven by adverse development in U.S. casualty losses from 2022 through 2024. On this news, the price of Everest's stock fell more than 11%.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:
The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Everest common stock during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Everest class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
