The Ensign Group, Inc. securities fraud class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired The Ensign Group, Inc. ("Ensign") (NASDAQ: ENSG) securities between February 10, 2022 and June 18, 2026, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Captioned Perusek v. The Ensign Group, Inc., No. 26-cv-02963 (C.D. Cal.), the Ensign class action lawsuit alleges that Ensign and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your Ensign investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than December 7, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) Ensign relies on self-reporting to have a higher quality of care ratings than it reasonably would otherwise; (2) the company understated its risk of various penalties associated with its hidden practice of defrauding programs such as Medicare and Medicaid; (3) Ensign, among other means, overstated the number of hours that nurses and other professionals were at the facilities; and (4) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID ENSIGN'S STOCK DROP?

Following earlier reports hinting at neglect in Ensign facilities, on June 18, 2026, Hunterbrook Media released a report titled "New: Patients Hungry in Ensign Facilities," detailing new evidence of "resident hunger, payroll falsification, understaffing, and staff licensing issues." On this news, the price of Ensign's stock fell 1.4%.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:
The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Ensign securities during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Ensign class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
