The Triller Group Inc. securities fraud class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired Triller Group Inc. ("Triller") (NASDAQ: ILLR; ILLRW) securities between October 16, 2024 and December 29, 2025, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Captioned Stauber v. Triller Group Inc., No. 26-cv-11989 (C.D. Cal.), the Triller class action lawsuit alleges that Triller and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your Triller investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than December 14, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:
Triller was created from the October 15, 2024 merger (the "Merger") of Triller Corp ("Legacy Triller"), as a next generation, artificial intelligence-powered, social media and live-streaming event platform, and AGBA Group Holding Limited, a British Virgin Islands Company that operated as a wealth management and healthcare institution selling insurance, pensions, and other products. One of Triller's assets purportedly acquired in the Merger was the Bare Knuckle Fighting Championship ("BKFC"), which stages live and live-streamed combat sports events and is touted as "the fastest-growing combat league in the industry."

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) Triller's control over and consolidation of BKFC was tenuous, overstated, or non-existent; (2) Triller could not timely file one or more of its periodic financial reports with the SEC, in part, because of accounting issues related to BKFC, subjecting Triller to an increased risk of being delisted from the NASDAQ Capital Market; (3) Triller's disclosure controls and procedures were deficient, the full scope and severity of issues with its financial controls were understated, and the overall benefits of the Merger were overstated; (4) Defendants overstated Triller's ability to address its non-compliance with the NASDAQ's listing requirements; and (5) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID TRILLER'S STOCK DROP?

On December 30, 2025, Triller announced receipt of "a determination letter from a Nasdaq Hearings Panel on December 26, 2025, confirming the suspension of trading on the Nasdaq Stock Market effective at the open of the market on December 30, 2025 and delisting of the Company's securities." It revealed that this determination stemmed from "the Company not having been able to file two periodic reports by a deadline of December 24, 2025 set by the Hearings Panel." On this news, the price of Triller securities declined more than 91%.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired Triller securities during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the Triller class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
