The UP Fintech Holding Limited securities fraud class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of those who purchased or otherwise acquired UP Fintech Holding Limited ("UP Fintech") (NASDAQ: TIGR) securities between April 22, 2024 and June 2, 2026, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Captioned Liao v. UP Fintech Holding Limited, No. 26-cv-13939 (D.N.J.), the UP Fintech class action lawsuit alleges that UP Fintech and/or certain of its officers and/or directors violated federal securities laws by making false or misleading statements and/or omitted to disclose material information.

If you lost money as a result of your UP Fintech investment and want to find out more about this action and your rights, fill out the form on this page or contact attorney Jonathan Naji, Esq. of KTMC by calling (484) 270-1453 or via e-mail at info@ktmc.com. Lead plaintiff motions must be filed with the court no later than December 28, 2026.

COMPLAINT ALLEGATION SUMMARY:

The complaint alleges that, throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements, as well as failed to disclose material facts about the company's business, operations, and prospects. Specifically, Defendants misrepresented and/or failed to disclose that: (1) UP Fintech materially understated its legal and regulatory risk, considering its continued illegal activity in China; and (2) as a result of the foregoing, Defendants' statements about the company's business, operations, and prospects were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times.

WHY DID UP FINTECH'S STOCK DROP?

On June 2, 2026, UP Fintech issued a press release that revealed, among other things, that "the Beijing Bureau of the China Securities Regulatory Commission (CSRC) issued administrative penalties and ordered the confiscation of illegal gains against certain subsidiaries of the Company, with a total amount of approximately RMB 411 million (equivalent to roughly $59.7 million)." These penalties were the result of "certain subsidiaries' unlicensed cross-border securities business and illegal activities relating to the fund and futures business in mainland China." On this news, UP Fintech's stock price fell nearly 4% on June 2, 2026, and continued to fall a further 6% the following day.

THE LEAD PLAINTIFF PROCESS:

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 permits any investor who purchased or acquired UP Fintech securities during the Class Period to seek appointment as lead plaintiff in the UP Fintech class action lawsuit. A lead plaintiff is a representative party that acts on behalf of other class members in directing the litigation. In order to be appointed lead plaintiff, the Court must determine that the class member's claim is typical of the claims of other class members, and that the class member will adequately represent the class. Your ability to share in any recovery is not, however, affected by the decision whether or not to serve as a lead plaintiff. Filling out the online form above or communicating with any counsel is not necessary to participate or share in any recovery achieved in this case. Any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as a lead plaintiff through counsel of his/her choice, or may choose to do nothing and remain an inactive class member.
